- A. The store property is located at the corner of East Main Street and Water Street in Thurmont, Maryland.
- Q. You are acquainted with the family of Mr. Wisotzkey?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Will you state the names of the heirs-at-law and next of kin which he left surviving at the time of his death.
- A. He left his widow, Belva L. Wisotzkey, who lives in Thurmont. He also had a brother, Oliver B. Wisotzkey, who is my father. He had three sisters, Laura M., unmarried; Martha J., unmarried, and Mrs. Mary H. Creager, wife of M. L. Creager. My father and three aunts live in Thurmont, Maryland. He also left a sister named Elizabeth Fauble, who lived in Baltimore, and she died just a few months ago. She left surviving her a son, Benjamin Fauble, who lives in Baltimore, and a daughter, Mattie Fauble, who also lives in Baltimore. She left surviving also a grandson, named Raymond Brownlee, who is the son of Eva Brownlee, who died several years prior to her mother. Mrs. Fauble also had another daughter, named Mabel, who died a long time prior to the mother's death.

Mr. Wisotzkey left surviving a brother named Charles Wisotzkey, who lives in York, Pennsylvania, and another brother, Hugh Wisotzkey, who lives in Pennsylvania also, either at Abbottstown or York.

My uncle was also survived by the following children of Katherine Firor, a sister, who died intestate, several years prior to the date of death of J. Emory Wisotzkey. They are: David Firor, who lives in Frederick County; Guy Firor, William Firor and George Firor, who
